

A great training resource...

The image shows a screenshot of the The Alan Turing Institute website. The background is a dark, blurred image of a cup filled with various colored pens and pencils. In the top left corner, the text 'The Alan Turing Institute' is displayed in white. In the top right corner, there is a search icon and a 'Menu' button. Below the header, there is a navigation bar with links: 'Home +', 'Research +', and 'Research projects'. The main heading is 'The Turing Way' - A handbook for reproducible data science. Below this, a subheading reads 'Developing a handbook for best practice in academic data science'. At the bottom left, there is a 'Learn more' button with a downward arrow. On the right side, there is a white box containing the text 'Related programmes' and 'Research Engineering' with a horizontal line underneath.
